Dear Colleagues!

St. Petersburg Polytechnic University invites You to participate in the International Forum “International Polytechnic Week” from 20 till 23 May, 2015.

This year we organize a program for the representatives of international offices of Russian and foreign partner universities and their staff-members involved in universities’ international activities.

Within the framework of the “International Polytechnic Week” you can participate in the following events:

- International Seminar “International network partnership: best practices of network strategic partnership”;
- IX International Conference “International cooperation: current issues in teaching foreign students. 50th anniversary of the Foundation Faculty”;
- International conference within the framework of the MEDIS project (TEMPUS program);
- Workshop “Experience in the development of the international network educational programs: best practices” with the certificates for the participants.

In addition, you are welcome to present the international activities and educational services of your university at the International Education Fair.

Collection of articles of conferences’ participants will be published both in printed and electronic versions.

To participate in the International Forum “International Polytechnic Week” it is required to complete a registration form till 15 April 2015 on the website <https://sites.google.com/site/iescspbbpu/> or fill in the registration form in attached document and send it by e-mail.
